

tive Americans come up to the work like men, and rescue our liberties before it shall be too late. We believe that the present excitement will not cease; we believe that true Americans and Protestants will labor and pray until our happy country shall be regenerated from the influence of civil and ecclesiastical tyranny.

In the present work will be found some of the most thrilling facts and startling developments ever published in respect to the premeditated destruction of our religious freedom.