

Migration Story

What's below the surface?

Life before migration

Culture, language, relationships

Reasons people leave their homes

Choice, pressures, environment

Experiences during migration journeys

Journey, borders

Ambiguous status

Laws, asylum/refugees, mixed family documentation

Conditions in the new land

Social discourse (current/historical), opportunities, adjustment

Local stories of migration and global patterns

Perspective, unique/universal

Re-Imagining
Migration